FABLES in SLANG

By GEORGE ADE

Copyrighted, 1911. Reprinted from Illustrated Sunday Magazine by Permission of the Author

Once there was a little E-Flat Town that needed a direct Communication with a Trunk Line. A Promoter wearing Sunday Clothes and smoking 40-cent Cigars came out from the City to see about it.

The Daily Paper put him on the Front Page. Five Dollars was the Set-Back for each Plate at the Banquet tendered him by the Mercantile Association. A Bonus was offered, together with a Site for the Repair Shops and the Round House.

When the College Graduates in Khaki Suits began to drag Chains across Lots, a Wave of Joy engulfed Main Street from the Grain Elevator clear out to the Creamery.

Then came 10,000 Carous, temporarily residing in Box Cars, to disarrange the Face of Nature and put a Culvert over the Creek. Real Estate Dealers emerged from their Holes and local Rip Van Winkles began to sit up and rub their eyes.

One morning a Train zipped through the Cut and pulled up at the New Station.

The Road was an Assured Fact. The Rails were spiked down; the Rolling Stock was in Commission; Trains were running according to Schedule.

There was no longer any Reason for Waiting, so the Citizens hiked over to the Court House and began to file Damage Suits. The Town Council started in to pass Ordinances and the Board of Equalization whooped the Taxes.

Horny-handed jurors hung around the Circuit Court Room waiting for a Chance to take a Wallop at the soulless Corporation.

When the Promoter came along on a Tour of Inspection, the only Person down to meet him was the Sheriff.

Children in the Public School practiced the new Oval Penmanship by filling their Cosy-Book with the following popular Catch Line: "When you have a Chance to Soak the Railroad, go to it."

And the Trains never ran to suit Everybody.

MORAL: Go easy with Capital until you get it Roped and Tied.

EARLINGTON BOY MAKES GOOD

Harford Chatten Who Has Served As An Apprentice in Howell Finished Creditably

Harford Chatten, who has been serving an apprenticeship in the Howell R. R. shops for the past year, has recently finished with much credit. He is now a thorough mechanic and we feel that he will make good at his chosen work.

He is the son of Dr. E. A. Chatten formerly a practicing physician of this place, but now of San Antonio Tex., and the grand son of Mrs. Kate Pike of this city.

We are indeed proud to be able to say that Earlington can produce such boys as Harford. He has the Bee's best wishes for his future success.

IN LAURELED REST (Atlanta Constitution)

"He is resting in his laurels," so they said of one who lay Where he could not hear the singing of the winds that went his way. After all this curse and clamor of this bitter, trampled sod.

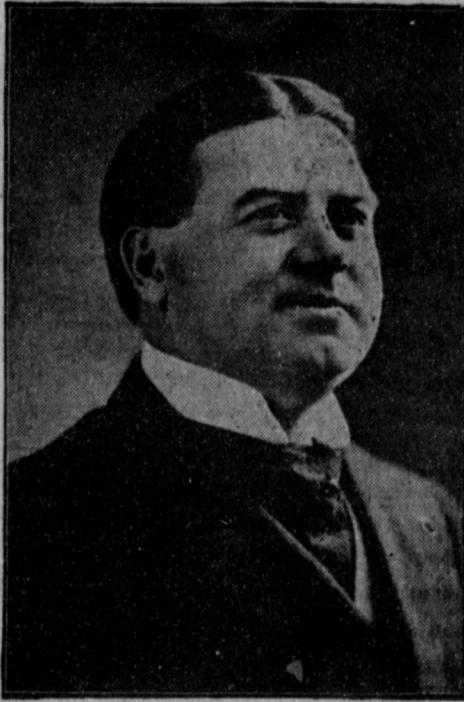

"He is resting on his laurels, 'neath the quiet stars of God."

"He is resting on his laurels"—but not one awarded now But left a stain of crimson on the pallor of his brow.

Too late—too late the laurels that were won with pain and death. When he could not feel the falling of the benediction's breath!

"He is resting on his laurels," so they said of him that day. Who could not reap the riches of one red rose o' May!

After all the curse and clamor—after all the storm and strife, 'Neath the daisies of the love of God, who reaped the thorns of life!

RALPH BINGHAM

At Temple Theatre, March 19, 1912

Last Number of Lyceum Course

Ralph Bingham, another number of the forthcoming entertainment course, is a humorist, who, for thirty-four years has been making large audiences laugh and still is in the prime of life. This is accounted for by the fact that his first appearance was at the age of six years, when he traveled as the "Boy Orator of America." His appearances on the American continent number nearly 10,000. The past summer he has been traveling in Europe.

T. DeWitt Talmage after hearing Bingham said: "Bless Bingham and all the apostolic college of humorists. The man that makes me laugh is my benefactor. God bless all skillful pugilists, all those who mirthfully surprise us with unusual juxtaposition of words, theirs is a divine mission."

Mr. Bingham is an impersonator, a humorist, a violinist, a pianist and a vocalist. The coming season his wife will travel with him and the accompaniments for his vocal and violin selections.

CONSIDER THE CORK

A little cork fell in the path of a whale
Who lashed it down with his angry tail.
It quickly arose
And floated serenely before his nose.

Said the cork, 'You may flap and splutter and rap
But you can never keep me down,
For I'm made of the stuff
That is buoyant enough
To float instead of to drown.'"

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Earlington People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first;
But if you find 'tis from the kidneys;

That serious kidney troubles may follow;

That Bright's disease may be the fatal end.

You will gladly profit by the following experience.

'Tis the statement of an Earlington citizen.

John Davenport, Wilson St., Earlington, Ky., says: "I suffered more severely from kidney trouble than words can describe. My back was so sore and lame that I could not do any work for days at a time. The kidney secretions were scanty and there was a constant pain in my back which completely blinded me at times. I often became dizzy and dark spots appeared before my eyes. Nothing helped me until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the St. Bernard Drug Store. I felt better after taking them a few days and from that time on I improved steadily until I was well."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Our Carlstedt's German Liver Powder acts on the Liver, the real cause of constipation—a few doses entirely remove the trouble—ensure a lasting cure—never fails—guaranteed—if you have headaches, get a bottle today from the St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated, Drug Department. 25c a bottle.

HOW CHRONIC COUGHS

Are Being Cured by Vinol
New Haven, Conn.—"I was troubled with a most persistent chronic cough for a long time and had tried so many remedies and prescriptions without benefit that I was discouraged. I was persuaded by my friends to try Vinol. After taking the second bottle, my cough left me, and I must say I never felt better in my life. I can also recommend Vinol to any one in a run-down condition as the best possible remedy."

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cods' livers, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which makes Vinol so efficient in curing chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis—at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

FIRE ALARM SYSTEM

General Information

The city of Earlington has been divided into four Fire Districts, known as number one, two, three and four. These districts are formed by the two natural physical dividing lines,--viz. Main Street and the L. & N. R. R.

Fire District No. 1, comprises all that territory North of Main St., and West of the R. R., (e. g. the City Hall, Round House, F. B. Arnold's residence, Pump House, etc. etc., are in District No. 1.

Fire District 2., comprises all that territory North of Main St., and East of the R. R., (e. g. the St. Bernard Store, Barnes, Cowan & Co., P. H. Whalen's residence, Masonic Temple. "Logtown" etc. etc., are in District No. 2.

Fire District 3., comprises all that territory South of Main St., and West of the R. R., (e. g. the Post Office, Goodloe's restaurant, Chas. Cowell's residence, Mrs. Harriet Browning's residence, Esq. Jas. Priest's residence, etc. etc., are in District No. 3.

Fire District 4., comprises all that territory South of Main St., and East of the R. R., (e. g. the Peoples Bank, Victory Building, C. M. Henry's residence, Catholic Church, New Methodist Church, etc. etc., are in District No. 4.

Each telephone subscriber in these Districts has been furnished with a card showing the number of Fire District in which each phone is situated,—these cards directing that, in case of fire, Central Telephone Exchange be informed of District Number and name of house "on fire". The Central operator will in turn notify L. & N. Round House, which will give the alarm.

The Round House whistle will in the future give the official alarm, and this alarm consist of a series of short blasts followed by one, two, three or four long ones, according to the district in which fire is located,—these long blasts indicating the district. This alarm will be repeated as seems necessary. The L. & N. locomotives will not give the alarm unless an engineer or train men should first discover a fire (i. e. should see it before the regular alarm had been given)—or, in the event the regular Round House alarm should fail to arouse the fire Department at night.

FREE IF IT FAILS

Your Money Back if You are not Satisfied
With the Medicine We Recommend

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate, and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthier activity.

We want you to try Rexal Oderlies on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons, and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time.

Five thousand spangles on one gown makes a sight seldom seen, yet this is the number on one of the gowns which Miss Irene Solomon wears in the beautiful romantic production of "A Royal Slave," which comes to the Temple Theatre on Thursday March 7th. A GREAT OFFER

The Vulture's Claw, a Hand-somely Bound $1.50 Book for 50c

For a limited time we will sell you the Twice-a-Week Earlington Bee, price $1.00 per year, and the (Vulture's Claw) by Rev. C. F. Wimberly, price $1.50, both for the price of $1.50. The Vulture's Claw is one of the best romances by modern writers and should be read by every man, woman and child in Hopkins County. A copy of the book can be seen at this office. Read what some of the people you know say about the book.

WM. JENNINGS BRYAN SAYS:

"Rev. C. F. Wimberly, Madisonville, Ky.—My Dear Mr. Wimberly: I have read 'The Vulture's Claw'; it is a splendid story. The book should find a place in libraries and among the books for young people. You have succeeded admirably in combining moral lessons with an interesting narrative. I congratulate you. Yours truly, W. J. BRYAN."

RELIGIOUS TEACHINGS ARE EXCELLENT

It held my interest from start to finish, and I enjoyed as much as anything I have read for a long time. The moral and religious teachings are excellent, and no one can read it and not feel much benefited.—C. E. Dudley, Supt. Earlington (Ky.) schools.

THE LOUISVILLE TIMES SAYS:

"The Vulture's Claw" is an absorbingly interesting story, with a deep religious moral. The story takes its name from a miserly grasping hypocrite whose left hand is deformed into the shape of a claw and his character is so much like a vulture that the title of the book is peculiar apt. Mr. Wimberly introduces more than a dozen interesting characters and a multiplicity of situations which he handles with a master hand. His descriptive work is nothing short of genius.

AN UPLIFTING FORCE

A remarkable book; it has that strange inefinable charm and power which holds us to the very last page. It shows the battles among the hard environments, and the victories that may be won. It will be an uplifting force in every life which only eternity can measure.—St. Louis Christian Advocate.

Remember the Twice-a-Week Bee one year and this handsomely bound $1.50 book for only $1.50, the price of the book alone.

One! This hole is 'bout to cut my stomach open."

"Hush, Jimmy!" warned the other child. "Don't make so much noise, Aunt Minerva 'll hear you."

"I want her to hear me," screamed Jimmy. "You'd like me to stay stuck in a chicken hole all night. Oh! oh!"

The noise did indeed bring Billy's aunt out on a tour of investigation. She had to knock a plank off the henhouse with an axe before Jimmy's release could be accomplished. He was lifted down, red, angry, sticky, and perspiring, and was indeed a sight to behold.

"Billy got to all time posse something to get little boys in trouble," he growled, "and got to all time get 'em stuck in a hole in a chicken house."

"My nephew's name is William," corrected she.

"You posse this here yo'self!" cried an indignant Billy. "Me an' Wilkes Booth Lincoln don't know nothing 't all 'bout no rabbit's eggs since we're born."

"It doesn't matter who proposed it," said his aunt firmly. "You are going to be punished, William. I have just finished one of your night-shirts. Come with me and put it on and go to bed."

poor and had a miserable time and mean Mr. Per'venture took him up on a high mountain and left him, so when he come down some bad little children say, "Go 'long back, bald head!" and they make pock-mocks on him. Seems like everybody treat him bad, so he cuss 'em, so I never see anybody with a bald head 'thout I run, 'cause I don't want to get cussed. So two Teddy bears come out of the woods and ate up forty-two hundred of 'em."

"Why, Frances," reproved Lina, "you always get things wrong. I don't believe they ate up that many children."

"Yes, they did too," championed Jimmy, "cause it's in the Bible and Miss Cecilia spained all 'bout it to me, and she's our Sunday school teacher and 'bout the bullest 'splainer they is. Them Teddy bears ate up 'bout a million chillens, which is all the little boys and girls two Teddy bears can hold at a time."

Qualities That Make for Success.
"The qualities of honesty, energy, frugality, integrity, are more necessary than ever today, and there is no success without them. They are so often urged that they have become commonplace, but they are really more prized than ever. And any good fortune that comes by such methods is deserved and admirable."—Marshall Field.

Repels Attack of Death

"Five years ago two doctors told me I had only two years to live." This startling statement was made by Stillman Green, Malachite, Col. "They told me I would die with consumption. It was well I did, for today I am working and believe I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure that has cheated the grave of another victim." Miss Minerva and William Green Hill

By FRANCES BOYD CALHOUN

(Copyright, by Bell & Britton Co.)
"Pull!" yelled the owner of the short fat legs. "I'm stuck and can't go furder. Pull me th'o, Billy."

About this time the defrauded fowl flew from her nest and attempted to get out by her rightful exit. Finding it stopped up by a wriggling, squirming body she perched herself on the little boy's neck and flapped her enraged wings in his face.

"Pull!" yelled the child again, "help me th'o, Billy. Tore this fool chicken pecks all the meat off 'm my bones."

Billy grabbed the sticky limbs and gave a valient tug, but the body did not move an inch. Alas, Jimmy with his cargo of broken eggs was fast imprisoned.

"Pull again!" yelled the scared and angry child, "you 'bout the idjeest idjet they is if you can't do no better 'n that."

Billy jerked with all his strength, but with no visible result.

"Pull harder! You no-count gump!" screamed the prisoner, beating off the hen with his hands.

The boy on the outside, who was strong for his years, braced himself and gave a mighty wrench of the other child's stout extremities. Jimmy howled in pain and gave his friend an energetic kick.

"Lemme go!" he shrieked, "you old impudent backbiter. I'm going to tell Miss Minerva you pulled my legs out by the roots."

A small portion of the prisoner's blouse was visible. Billy caught hold of it and gave a strong jerk. There was a sound of ripping and tearing and the older boy fell sprawling on his back with a goodly portion of the younger child's raiment in his hands.

"Now see what you done," yelled the victim of his energy, "you ain't got the sense of a buffalo smat. Oh.
